Everyday Materials

Everyday Materials on the Ferry

Introduction

▸ This task is about spotting everyday materials in use on the Red Funnel ferry during your trip!

TASK 1
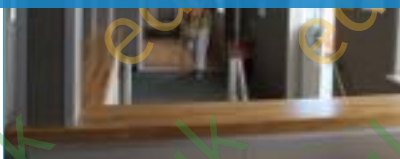

Look at the pictures and words below.

Draw lines to join the correct word to each picture.

In the empty boxes draw pictures or other examples you found on the ferry.

Glass
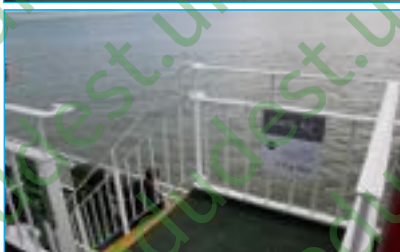

Wood
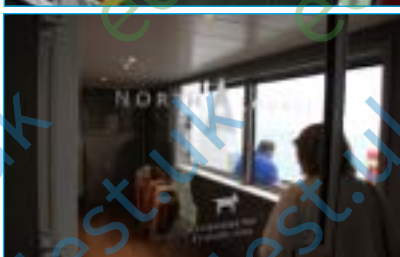

Plastic

Metal

Fabric

TASK 2

Same again! Look at the pictures and words below.

Draw lines to join the correct word to each picture.

In the empty boxes draw pictures of other examples you found on the ferry.

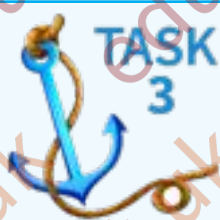

Flexible

Transparent
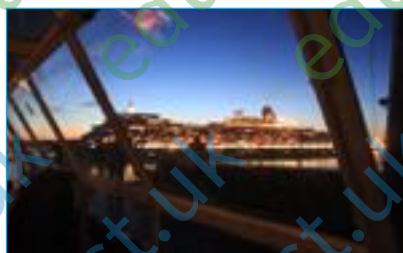

Natural

Soft

Crossword time!

Answer the clues to find the words describing everyday materials on the ferry.

DOWN

1. This is a property of the metal handrails.

2. Can be natural or man-made fibre and it is soft to walk on.

4. This is a property of the chairs in the main seating area. Passengers sit on.

6. It is made from oil, but its properties make it hard to dispose of. It won't break if you drop it.

8. You can see through it because it is...?

ACROSS

3. The captain's window is made of this.

5. The tables are made from this natural material.

7. Materials can be man-made or ...... ?

9. The outside deck and railings are made of this. One of its properties it that it is magnetic.

10. This material has to be painted so that it doesn't rust when in contact with water.